Pledge and Loyalty Confirmation Document

In accordance to this document, I the signatory below, confirm, as I am one of the students attending the University of Bahrain, that my full allegiance is for the leadership of the Kingdom of Bahrain represented in His Majesty The King Hamad Bin Essa Al Khalifa, the King of the country may God guard and bless him and the wise government.

And I pledge to respect the laws and regulations of the Kingdom of Bahrain, and the laws, regulations and the provision lists of the University of Bahrain, that I have read (List of Misconduct for the students of the University of Bahrain), and pledge not to organise or participate in any event or activity that is not permitted or does not solely relate to the students or to their academic regards, inside the University campus or outside it, or events and activities that would harm the reputation of The Kingdom of Bahrain domestically and internationally.

And I am also fully aware that I only bear 6% of the total educational expenses which is about 200 Dinars annually, while the country bears 94% of the total educational expenses which is about 4000 Dinars annually.

Based on this, I acknowledge that not signing this document means I do not wish to continue my education in the University of Bahrain, and whereas if I do sign, I fully understand that if I committed any action that contradicts with any of the provisions of this document, the administration of the University of Bahrain will have the right to take any proceedings it sees suitable against me in terms of decrees and punishments that may reach a maximum of final and immediate suspension from the University of Bahrain.
